KENNETH H. MIZRACH, DIRECTOR
VA NJ HEALTH CARE SYSTEM

January 14, 2005

Police Officer Peter Villani has distinguished himself as an exemplary police officer and VA employee in several ways, which merit a special incentive award. Officer Villani after observing the process in which the service manages the police equipment inventory system volunteered to review the process and overhaul the system. Officer Villani volunteered numerous hours of his time to create an efficient system, which placed all equipment and supplies in an organized manner and allows for the quick retrieval of supply totals, ensuring that all police officers are equipped with working equipment, his attention to detail in this task has allowed the service to achieve numerous cost savings in the purchase of equipment.

Officer Villani assisted in the complete reorganization of the Evidence property custody area. Officer Villani as the primary evidence custodian has established a program which, processes evidence in a technically correct and efficient manner.

While on routine traffic patrol one afternoon Officer Villani observed that the traffic patterns at the East Orange Campus were not affording the employees of the EO campus the opportunity to depart the campus in a timely manner. Officer Villani took upon himself to create a new traffic plan for egress, which allows for a more organized and timely departure.

Officer Villani has routinely made suggestions for such things as increasing parking spaces in areas, which are currently underutilized, his suggestions have helped ease a large parking space deficit at the East Orange Campus.

In addition to these accomplishments Officer Villani has also contributed to the excellence in training of VA Police Officers with his expertise in the field of firearms and firearms training. Officer Villani serves in the capacity of Firearms Instructor/Armorer for the Police ensuring that all policy requirements under EC-19 are achieved.

Officer Villani's commitment to excellence and devotion to duty reflects great credit upon the VA New Jersey Health Care System and the Police Service.

Villani, P.

The aforementioned employees of the Police in addition to performing their primary duties as VA Police Officers have been designated as Firearms Instructor/Armorer for the VA New Jersey Health Care System. These employees have the unenviable task of ensuring that all firearms training are conducted on a semi-annual basis for all police staff. In addition these individuals must monitor the firearms program requirements on a daily basis.

These include ensuring that all firearms are inspected and cleaned monthly to ensure optimum performance in an emergency situation. Ensuring that the administrative program requirements are met by conducting monthly ammunition inventories of 60,000 rounds of ammunition. The inspection of all sign-in / sign-out records. These individuals must provide basic and advanced firearms related training on a continuing basis they must also travel to the Law Enforcement Training Center to maintain and update their training requirements.

The commitment to excellence and devotion to duty of these officers reflects great credit upon the VA New Jersey Health Care System and the Police Service.
